

I heard the bells on Christmas Day . And thought how, as the day had come,
Their old, familiar carols play, . The bellies of all Christendom and wild and sweet . Had rolled along
The words repeat . The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men! . Of peace on earth, good-will to men!
I heard the bells on Christmas Day . And thought how, as the day had come,
Their old, familiar carols play, . The bellies of all Christendom and wild and sweet . Had rolled along
The words repeat . The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men! . Of peace on earth, good-will to men!
I heard the bells on Christmas Day . And thought how, as the day had come,
Their old, familiar carols play, . The bellies of all Christendom and wild and sweet . Had rolled along
The words repeat . The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men! . Of peace on earth, good-will to men!
I heard the bells on Christmas Day . And thought how, as the day had come,
Their old, familiar carols play, . The bellies of all Christendom and wild and sweet . Had rolled along
The words repeat . The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men! . Of peace on earth, good-will to men!
I heard the bells on Christmas Day . And thought how, as the day had come,
Their old, familiar carols play, . The bellies of all Christendom and wild and sweet . Had rolled along
The words repeat . The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men! . Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

- ; Christmas song on a Christmas ball
- ; Cut 5 stripes and stick together at their centers and ends (with the help of a Styrofoam base and a pin it's easier to glue them). You can modify the font type/size and the text of the song, and to
- ; draw the stripes click on the Start icon of the (View » Toolbars ») Logo toolbar in LibreOffice 4.0.

TO line text1 text2

```
PENDOWN CIRCLE 1 RECTANGLE [PAGESIZE[0], 1.1cm]
PENUP LEFT 90 FORWARD PAGESIZE[0]/4
RIGHT 90 LABEL text1 RIGHT 90 FORWARD PAGESIZE[0]/2
RIGHT 90 LABEL text2 RIGHT 90 FORWARD PAGESIZE[0]/4
RIGHT 90 BACK 1.1cm
```

END

```
FONTSIZE 0.75cm FILLCOLOR "INVISIBLE"
CLEARSCREEN HOME HIDETURTLE PENUP
POSITION [PAGESIZE[0]/2, 1.6cm] HEADING 0
```

REPEAT 5 [

```
FONTFAMILY "Learning Curve" ; http://www.dafont.com/learning-curve.font
```

- ; first two stanzas of Christmas Bells by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1865)
- ; http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/I\_Heard\_the\_Bells\_on\_Christmas\_Day#Lyrics line "I heard the bells on Christmas Day" "And thought how, as the day had come," line "Their old, familiar carols play," "The belfries of all Christendom" line "and wild and sweet" "Had rolled along"

```
line "The words repeat" "The unbroken song"
line "Of peace on earth, good-will to men!" "Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"
```

]